Viṣṇumāyā: The King of Kutti Chāthan
A Comprehensive Guide to Siddhi Attainment

Dedicated to
My Respected Guru Ji
&
All sincere devotees of Śrī Viṣṇumāyā Swāmy

Warning
This sādhana is powerful and should only be practiced under the direct guidance and initiation of a qualified Guru. Unauthorized practice is not recommended.

Introduction

Śrī Viṣṇumāyā Swāmy, popularly known as Kutti Chāthan, is one of the most powerful and revered folk deities of Kerala. He is considered a divine child form with immense tantric power, swift justice, and protective energy. Viṣṇumāyā is worshipped for removing black magic, destroying enemies, granting quick justice, and providing protection in all areas of life.

This document is a complete guide for serious sādhakas seeking siddhi of Śrī Viṣṇumāyā. Guru Dīkṣā is mandatory. Without proper initiation and continuous guidance from a qualified Guru in the Kerala tradition, this sādhana should not be undertaken.

Types of Siddhis / Benefits from Viṣṇumāyā Sadhana

- Shatru Nash & Rakshā – Complete destruction of enemies and powerful protection from black magic, evil eye, and occult attacks.
- Quick Justice (Nyāya Siddhi) – Victory in court cases, legal disputes, and unfair situations.
- Dhana & Vyāpāra Siddhi – Removal of financial blocks and rapid business growth.
- Kārya Siddhi – Success in any important mission or goal.
- Bhoot-Pret Nash – Removal of ghosts, spirits, and negative entities.
- Parivāra Rakshā – Strong protection for family, especially children.
- Vashikaran & Sammohan (Advanced) – Attraction and influence over people and situations.
- Uchchāṭan & Vidveṣaṇ – Creating separation and problems for enemies (only for justified cases under Guru guidance).

Who Can Perform This Sādhana?

This intensive siddhi sādhana is traditionally performed only by men in most Kerala lineages. Women can worship Viṣṇumāyā for general blessings and protection with simpler daily pūjā, but the full long-term siddhi path is usually reserved for male practitioners under strict Guru guidance.
